Weekly Newsletter of Tabor City Baptist Church

FROM PASTOR DAVE

Next Sunday, July 26th, Tabor City Baptist Church will elect 3 new deacons. This is a both a great privilege and a great responsibility. We have 5 very qualified candidates who model the character required according to Acts 6:1-6 and 1 Timothy 3:8-10. There is a uniqueness about our deacons. They actually strive to serve. You may think that all deacons in all churches desire to serve. Sadly that's not true. In many Baptist churches, deacons want to run (or manage) the church and tell someone else to serve. I'm very thankful for our deacons at TCBC. I know firsthand of their sacrifices. So, I'm challenging YOU to serve your deacon. We all have one assigned to us and you should know who it is. If not, call the church office and we can get their information to you. Calling and asking how you can pray for them. Sending them a card of appreciation. Maybe getting them a gift card at The Grind or somewhere else would be very appreciated. In short, I'm asking you to love on our servants! Thank you.

Jack and Pat Adams have transferred their membership to Sandy Plain Baptist Church.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my church family for the prayers, calls, cards and texts during my recent illness.
